

Camel Charisma is a social enterprise that aims to develop, promote and market environment friendly products from the camel. Its purpose is to provide economic incentives for camel breeders to continue keeping camels for their livelihood and to contribute to the sustainable management of the Thar Desert and conserve this biodiversity rich agro-ecosystem.

Camel Charisma is looking for an intern or volunteer with communication training who can on the promote camel milk and raising awareness about the whole camel conservation issue in India. social media side. The organization will provide room and board on its campus in Sadri for a capable and energetic person who is tech-savvy. Please contact them by email at info@camelcharisma.com